- Wishing all you 7th and 8th grade brainiacs gearing up for the UWO math meet today all the luck in the world! May your calculations be as smooth as a TikTok transition and your solutions be as clear as an Instagram filter! Remember, even if you feel like you're drowning in numbers, just keep swimming like a pro in a sea of algebraic equations! And if you hit a rough patch, think of it like a glitch in a video game – just hit pause, take a deep breath, and come back stronger than ever! So go out there and slay those problems like you're the hero of your own math saga! You got this!
- Tomorrow is the last day for the 8th grade domino's pizza fundraiser. If you sold cards using the form, your forms and money are due into the office tomorrow at the very latest. Thank you all for working hard. It looks like we will have raised over $4,000.00
- After school, the book club will meet today in the Polar Bear Den from 3:10-4:00pm.
